

Bible 101

Lesson 25 - Crossing the Red Sea

Exodus 14-16

---

Exodus 14

1. Exodus begins with a different Pharaoh perceiving Israel as a military threat. Egypt lay in ruins because this Pharaoh refused to let Israel leave. Now, he wants to return Israel to Egypt by force. What is Scripture teaching us about the nature of sin?
2. Israel is afraid of the Egyptian army. Why is their fear irrational?
3. How did God protect Israel from the advancing Egyptian army?
4. What did God do to the Egyptian army as they pursued Israel across the bed of the Red Sea?
5. When God released the waters of the Red Sea, how much of the Egyptian army remained?

---

Exodus 15

Complaints about food and water become a common theme in the wandering through the wilderness. How does God test the Israelites in response to this first complaint?

---

Exodus 16

1. What did Israel say in their complaint about a lack of food?

Lesson 25 - Crossing the Red Sea

2. What were the rules regarding the gathering of bread?
3. When the children of Israel complained about Moses and Aaron, who were they really complaining against?
4. What lesson did God teach them by allowing the bread to decay after only one day (on every day but the Sabbath)?
5. How did the children of Israel commemorate the eating of manna in future generations?
6. How long did they eat manna?